About Mount Clare Museum

Minutes from the Inner Harbor, Centuries Away! Built in 1760, Mount Clare is the oldest house in Baltimore City and is located in historic Carroll Park, West Baltimore. Mount Clare became Maryland's first house museum in 1917. This National Historic Landmark is a fine example of a colonial Maryland Georgian country estate. Original furnishings of the builder, Charles Carroll, Barrister, his wife, Margaret Tilghman Carroll, and their heirs have been preserved in the house and provide an accurate interpretation of the grand style of 18th century colonial living. The Mount Clare Stable, originally built as a stable for the Baltimore City Police Horses in 1910, has been adapted for year round use and is available as a rental facility. The museum is open for guided tours on the hour, Thursday through Sunday beginning at 11 o'clock, last tour at 3 o'clock. Free parking. For more information, or group tour reservations, please call 410-837-3262 or visit www.mountclare.org.
