

BALTIMORE'S OLDEST MUSEUM HOUSE

MOUNT CLARE STABLE

The Mount Clare Stable is located on the west side of Carroll Park, at Washington Boulevard and Monroe Street. The Stable, built by the city of Baltimore in 1910 to house the police department's horses, is a charming example of adaptive re-use. A cozy setting for business meetings and civic groups or for an intimate reception, dinner, or small party. The Mount Clare Stable is conveniently located, just minutes from the Inner Harbor and Baltimore's downtown business center.

The Stable has plenty of free on-site secured parking.

You may rent the Stable for a maximum period of 7 hours which includes 2 hours for set up, 4 hours for your event, and 1 hour for cleanup. The rental fee depends on the time that you will vacate the Stable. The Mount Clare Stable is a climate controlled environment. Smoking is not permitted anywhere inside the Mount Clare Stable.

Please visit www.MountClare.org for more information, along with a copy of the Rules and Regulations.
